Docket No.
R2011-6

NOTICE OF UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE PROVIDING UPDATE
CONCERNING INBOUND MARKET DOMINANT EXPRESS SERVICE AGREEMENT 1
(May 31, 2017)

On September 26, 2011, the Postal Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) issued Order No. 876, adding Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 as a new product to the market dominant product list, and including the Express Service Agreement within that product.<sup>1</sup> The Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 is a multilateral agreement that “covers the delivery of cross-border LC/AO items weighing up to 2 kilograms tendered as Express items and branded with the Common Logo (“Express Items”).”<sup>2</sup>

Subsequently, on August 8, 2016, the Commission issued Order No. 3457, approving various modifications to the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 that the United States Postal Service (“Postal Service”) filed with the Commission.<sup>3</sup>

The Postal Service files this notice to inform the Commission of two recent additional versions of the Postal Service’s Annex 2 to the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 that set forth the delivery times (targets) for the Postal <sup>2</sup> Notice of United States Postal Service of Type 2 Rate Adjustment, and Notice of Filing Functionally Equivalent Agreement, Docket No. R2011-6, August 12, 2011, at 1, and Attachment 2 Express Service Agreement made and entered into December 10, 1999, Article 2.

Service under the Agreement – a corrected version that went into effect on June 1, 2016,<sup>4</sup> as well as a revised version that is scheduled to go into effect on June 1, 2017, which adds a tab to include a Postal Service International Service Center office of exchange used under the bilateral agreement between Hongkong Post and the Postal Service. The Postal Service does not consider it necessary to include revised financial workpapers with this filing, because the two updated versions of the Postal Service's Annex 2 included with this filing do not affect the net financial effect of the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1.

Redacted versions of the two revisions to the Postal Service's Annex 2 are included with this filing.

Attachment 1 to this filing includes information, recently provided to the Postal Service by the Head of Prime, concerning the parties to the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 as of April 1, 2017, as well as the parties to the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 that paid remuneration to the Postal Service for inbound inbound Express items in April 2017. A redacted version of Attachment 1 is included with this notice, and an unredacted version of Attachment 1 is filed under seal.

The Postal Service incorporates by reference the application for non-public treatment that the Postal Service filed in conjunction with its initial notice in this docket <sup>4</sup> The Postal Service regrets its oversight in not having timely filed with the Commission the corrected version of the Postal Service's Annex 2 to the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 that went into effect on June 1, 2016 (v6.1). In April 2016, the Postal Service discovered that the v6.0 of its Annex 2 of the Inbound Market Dominant Express Service Agreement 1 that the Postal Service included in its July 7, 2016 filing in this docket had a formatting issue. The PRIME Management Team corrected v6.0, published it as v6.1 of the Postal Service's Annex 2 to the Express Service Agreement, and shared v6.1 with the Postal Service on June 16, 2016. Because of an oversight, v6.1 was not included in the Postal Service's filing of an update in this docket on July 7, 2016. However, the revision to v6.0 that is included in v6.1 is merely format-based and did not change the delivery times (targets) for the Postal Service set forth in v6.0 in any way.

on August 12, 2011.<sup>5</sup> The application protects from disclosure the redacted portions of the two versions of the Postal Service's Annex 2, as well as the redacted portions of the table in Attachment 1, that the Postal Service is filing today with this notice.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
